Collection and Use of Personal Information

Personal information means any information that may be used to identify you, such as, your name, title, email address, phone number or postal address.

In general, you can browse our web site without giving us any personal information. We use several products to analyse traffic to this web site in order to understand our visitors' needs and to continually improve our site for them. We collect only anonymous, aggregate statistics. For example, we do not tie a specific visit to a specific IP address.

However, there are additional activities on our site that require you to be registered. For example, to receive our newsletter. As part of the registration process, we collect personal information. We use that information for a couple of reasons: to tell you about things you've asked us to tell you about; to contact you if we need to obtain or provide additional information; to check our records are right and to check every now and then that you're happy and satisfied.

By using our web site, you consent to the collection and use of the information you provide to us as outlined in this document. We may change this Policy from time to time and without notice, so make sure you check back occasionally. If we change our Privacy Policy, we will publish those changes on this page.
